Treasurer Esther Maas 425-255-7108	We will have a good Year.

We had a record breaking POPPY DAYS! Post Member John Houser was #1 Poppy Person, with Rod Haynes and Bruce Feltmann close 2nd & 3rd. Real competition and enjoying themselves. Eunice Paulus as TOP Unit Lady! Her first time out with Poppies and she really put an effort in it. A BIG THANKS to all who went out with Poppies this year! A GREAT BIG THANKS to our POPPY Chairman Linda Cook and to Loma Taylor for helping her. The POPPY is Very important to us. It is the only source of funds we have to carry on All the Veteran Programs we cover during the Year. THANK You to all who MAILED your Donations!

Elva Schulz, President, Evelyn Lundstrom-Weiss, Past President and Linda Cook, Chaplin were elected as delegates to the Department of Washington Convention at Great Wolf Lodge at Grand Mound WA. July 7-10.

On June 26, We hosted the 11th District Pre Convention Dinner and Awards Program. James Wilhoit, newly elected, District Commander received a Certificate for the Law and Order Program that he presented earlier this spring. Congratulation James. He will be receiving further Awards for this Program at Department Convention Thank You to every one who was involved with the Pre Convention Dinner.

Renton River Day parade is July 24 at 10 o'clock. Plan to attend the Parade OR join us IN THE PARADE!.
